

REDISCOVER ELEMENT 8

Attention Science students: Oxygen is making a comeback in Madison's bars and restaurants.
Your favorite hangouts are now smoke-free.
Enjoy.

0

Attention Math students: Zero. It's an integer standing for how many people are lighting up in Madison's smoke-free bars and restaurants. Now get out there, and up your fun quotient by 100.

CHEERS

Attention football fans: Save your voice for Camp Randall. Madison's bars and restaurants are now smoke-free. Cheer on.
